

A regular meeting of the Royal Oak Crime Prevention Council was held on February 9, 2021 through the city's Zoom account.

The meeting was called to order at 6:05 p.m.

Members Present: Lindsay Warren, Ted Page, Marc Comptois, Faye Faraci, Ellen Kehoe, Heather Lewis, Kiel Opperman, and City Commissioner Shar Douglas, and Lt. Chris Annetta.

Members Absent: Robin Winter

(Note: We are still looking for one new appointee)

Acceptance of Previous Minutes

- The January 12, 2021 meeting minutes are still under review by the police chief but were reviewed and unanimously approved by all in attendance (pending city approval).

Approval of Agenda

- The meeting's agenda was presented and unanimously approved.

Public Comment

- No public comment was provided.

Announcements/Communications

- The police department has successfully relocated to the new police station.

Old Business

- Senior Safety event was cancelled during the pandemic but remains a topic to be visited in the future. Promotion of lock boxes is still an item we can promote through our Facebook page and other social media.
- Sponsorships and possible funding for lock boxes can be revisited after businesses begin to recover financially from the pandemic.
- There was discussion of potential public events again and they are not expected to resume until fall of this year. This discussion will be on-going monthly.

New Business

- Phone scams and email security threats are prevalent. We can research informational postings through our own police force and reach out to the attorney general's office for possible on-line informational messages.
- A motion was made, then seconded and approved by all members, to cancel the March meeting and organize an introductory tour of the new police station. Planning is for March 9 at 5:30 p.m. pending confirmation.

Adjournment

There being no further business to attend to, the meeting was adjourned at 6:30 p.m.
