*Old days, good times I remember
Fun days, filled with simple pleasures.
— Chicago*

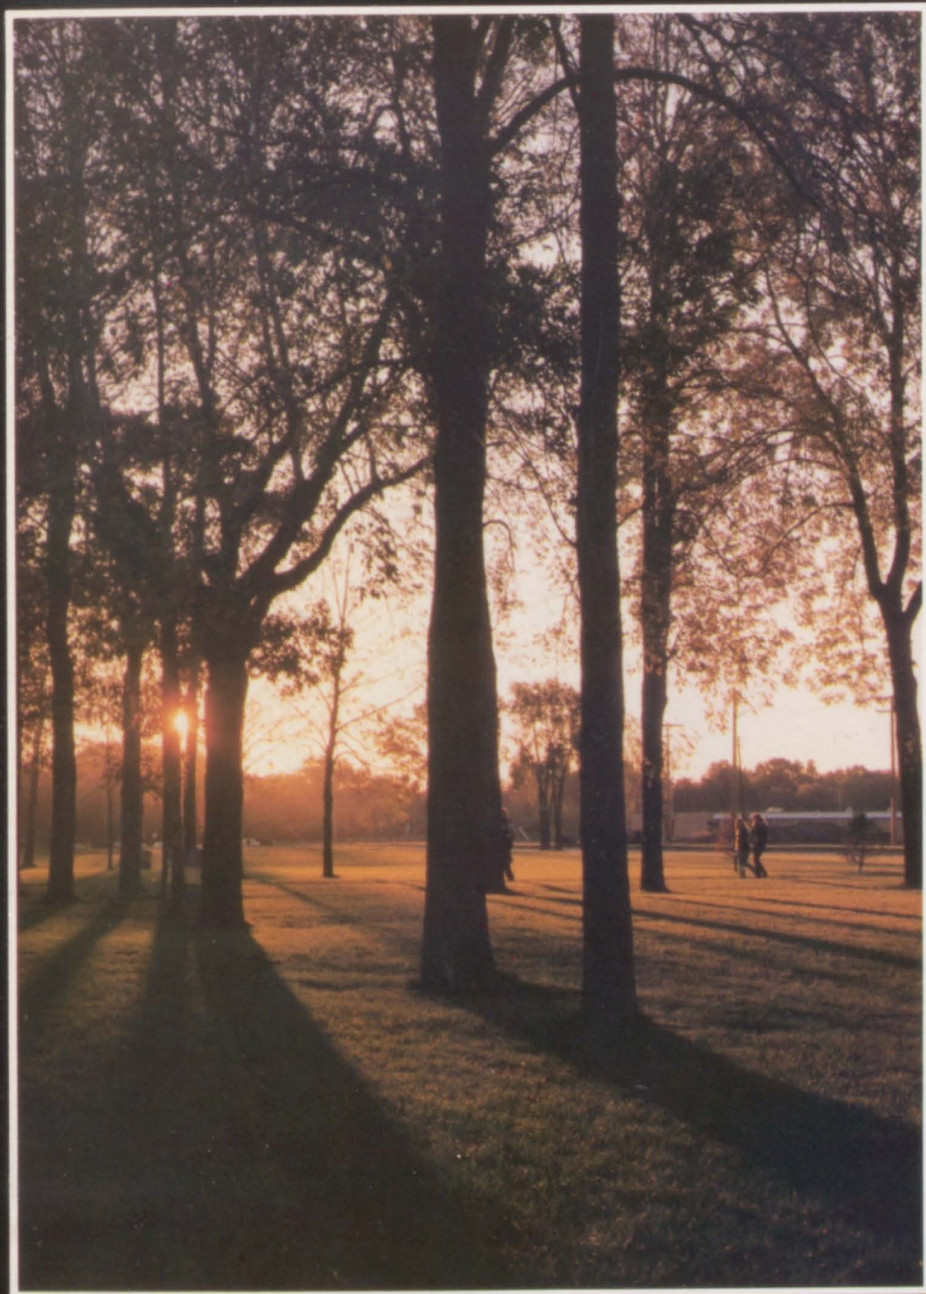

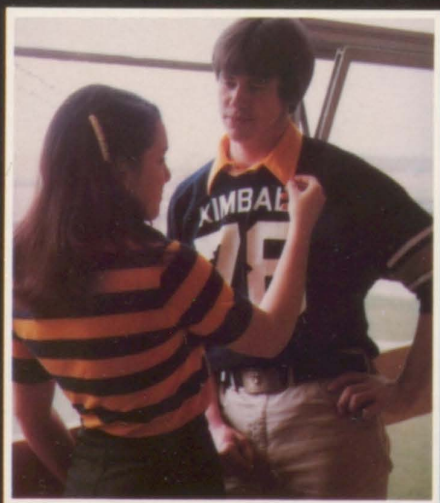

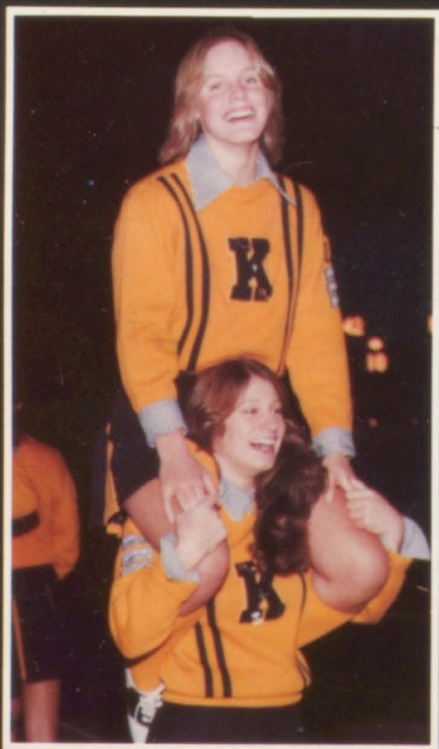

*You never really leave a place you love:
Part of it you take with you, leaving part of yourself behind.*

*When you part from your friend, you grieve not;
For that which you love most in him may be clearer in his absence, as the mountain to the climber is clearer from the plain.*

*I shall pass through this world but once.
If, therefore, there be any good thing
I can do, or any kindness I can show to any fellow creature, let me do it now; let me not defer it nor neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again.*

An Irish Blessing

*May the road rise to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face,
the rain fall soft upon your fields.
and, until we meet again,
May God hold you in the palm of his hands.*

These candid shots show our students in action. (1) The good paintings in the glass hall express the enthusiasm of the seniors during spirit week. (2) Pat Mayer watches the girls: Kathy Dutton, Dawn Malsberger, Laurie Kales, and Cindy Michalek as they anxiously wait for Dawn to read the message she received with her flower. (3) A popular fad the students participate in is the hanging of birthday posters which their friends hang up to wish them happy birthday. The Lancer wishes you a "Happy Birthday, Amy!" (4) Don't look at your hands!' This is one of the rules you must remember to become an expert typist. Lori Rempes follows this as she 'plunk, plunks' along.

(1) Joanne Draveski shows interest in her Novel class by reading Dandelion Wine for a college prep course Novel. (2) Ann Savaglio and Mr. Docks go over a paper written by Ann for her Advanced Comp. class. She prays that he won't circle any more mistakes. (3) Frank Stuglin and Rich Sintell show their interest in school work as they both study, study, study. (4) Kathy Martens and Dave Miles look at the front of the room at their teacher and listen with interest. It seems that they both have a close relationship with their pencils also. (5) That's it, says Mary Morgan, I've had it with all the girly remarks from you Dave Atkins. She throws him a sharp left to the shoulder. Better watch it, Dave. (6) Oh, what a thinker! Matt Bauer concentrates extra hard on his reading for Novel.

(1) Mary Connelly contentedly reads over her history assignment. (2) To be a good student, you must listen carefully to your instructor, as does Ron McKenney. (3) Kimdra Stienke reads to (l. to r.) Aieda Gappy, Patty Cook, Alice Sanchez, Jim Depew, Chris Martin, Tony Mikich, Bob Oberdorsten, and (center) Martha Willmot in Mr. Spurck's Oral Communications' class. (4) History class isn't always just serious work, for Tina Ewen finds time to take a break. (5) Al Glasby (right) and David Farhat (center) discuss an assignment with Mr. Spurck. (6) Shelley Quinn (left) and Judy Laverdiere recite poems to their Honors American Literature class. (7) Mrs. Greco gives individual instruction to Cliff Spencer in American Lit. class. (8) Bill Robertson ponders over a difficult assignment in his Advanced Composition class.

(1) In Asian' History, Don Williams, Robert Kapter, Jeff Bowers, and Norman Roger discuss a map of Asia. Customs, history, and geographical maps are studied in this class. (2) Carol Welch generously shares her class notes with Carrie Supnick, who wonders about the lecture she missed. (3) "Daydreaming? Me? — I'm ready for any question I think of," Rory Violet announces to his class. (4) Karen Slater knows school work comes first before play. Writing reports and term papers, hearing lectures and speeches, reading books and pamphlets are all different parts which make up a history class. (5) Sue Atkins knows what she is talking about, and we all know that Pat Meharg has a lot to say too, but the question is when to speak. (6) "Gee, this is fun!" says Dawn Malsberger while writing her assignment in history. Joann Ingoglia smiles, knowing what she means. (7) It is sometimes easier to teach with the help of students. Here, Al Carter holds the paper for Brandee Lovins while she copies information to show the class how Chapter Twelve is to be done.

(1) Senior Math is very hard, but with a little help from others, it becomes easier. Struggling with a problem, Kathy Franklin gets some assistance from Mr. Dalley. (2) Searching together to find an answer for the class are Alex Wardene and Jody Grabowski. And they look like they enjoy solving it, too!! (3) One of Kimball's newest courses is Computer Science. This class gives a student a chance to work with computers. Bob Pelc finds the answer with the help of Sam Abro and Dave Burney. (4) Paying close attention while the teacher explains a trigonometric problem is Donna Olivieri. (5) Geometry is sometimes frustrating, but working out a puzzler together helps to determine the answer.

(1) Cindy Cleghorn shows that not everyone is perfect as she erases a mistake in Mr. Fleishman's second year typing class. (2) Kathy Wing concentrates on getting her centering and tabulations right before she begins to type. (3) Dave Farhat displays an illustration that was made for his Distributive Education class. (4) Karen Rodgers looks up in surprise as she double checks columns of figures in accounting. (5) Record Keeping is a class that demands your complete attention. Here Betty Otti balances a check book in a "practice set." (6) No matter what class you take, it's almost inevitable that listening to lectures and jotting down notes will be included in the course. Doing this in Accounting are, (front row, left to right) Mike Jardine, Tracy Yokich. (second row) Dan Clark, Barb Stanton and Robin Fisher.

Industrial Art classes help interested students widen their skills in whatever type of class they choose. (1) Ken Camp works endlessly to do a perfect job on his Metal Shop project. (2) In Graphic Arts, Rochelle Oswald finishes up cutting out her silk-screen project, while Michael Davis and Stuart Scheid ask Mr. Kreig for his advice. (3) In Metal Shop, things must be exactly right. As shown here, Mike Klemet tries to line up two bolts. (4) Retouching negatives is a touchy job, but Bob Neary does it very smoothly. (5) With a torch of fire, Mike Palmieri carefully welds metal together. (6) Dan Zaratzian uses a machine which tests batteries in Auto Shop.

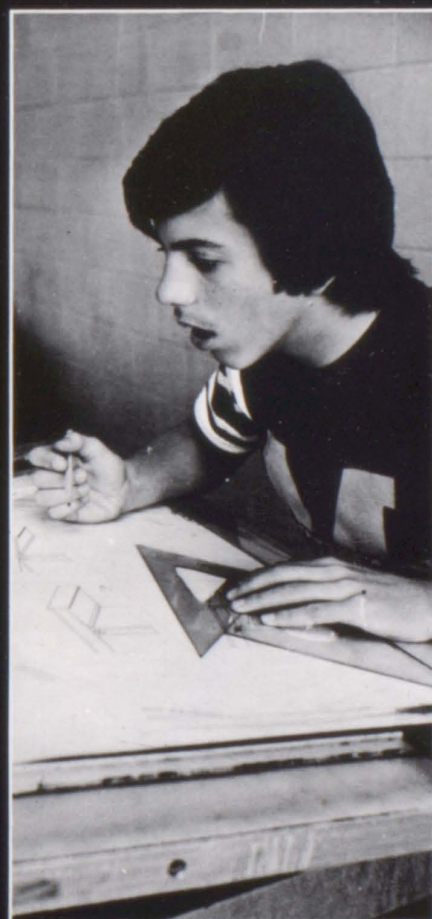

(1) Steve Senator pays careful attention as he checks over a transmission in third hour, auto mechanics. (2) Dan Graney is cautious not to catch his fingers as he moves the sanding machine back and forth to smooth out a table top. (3) Safety Classes are a must as Kent Kniespeck cuts through a piece of metal. (4) Interested students of Mr. Hildbrandt's first hour watch intently as Bob Kultz demonstrates how to take a tire off a rim. (5) As Rick Walker fits the final piece of his woodshop project together, partner Honi Sesi is eagerly waiting to begin his. (6) Gary Gallop, another woodshop student, shows great concentration not to hammer his thumb, but instead to hammer his project. (7) Mark Cleary is surprised to find that as he double checks his work, the first measurements are not corresponding with the others.

Home Economics classes offer students homemaking experience to be used in future years. (1) Kim Johnson stirs an incredible edible in her Personal Foods class. (2) Jenny Meek and Salwa Haji choose appropriate floral patterned wallpaper for a bedroom decorating assignment. (3) Demonstrating team work, Sally Millen and Stacy Green prepare a scrumptious concoction together. (4) In Modern Diet and Nutrition, Karen Castle and Charlotte Greene show that jumping rope is beneficial to good health. (5) As (l to r) Shelley Zaratzian, Sherry Smith, and Donna Weathers observe, Mrs. Mann explains the process of various sewing techniques.

(1) Terri Wirth completes a power serve during a game of volleyball. (2) In volleyball, enthusiasm and determination must be present, as these two physical education students show as they strive to return the ball. (3) Diane Larson demonstrates a lifesaving technique. (4) Fifth hour gym students reach for the basketball during a practice game. (5) Chris Woods learns to "backwards scull" in ice skating, a course offered to students during the winter season. (6) Andy Martin enthusiastically leaps over the "horse." (7) The uneven parallel bars give students a chance to use challenging gymnastics equipment. Mary Veldey shows how a hard stunt is done.

Art is an outlet for your creative self. You can put your feelings down in different forms. (1) One outlet is designing jewelry for yourself. Denise Konstantinov is copper enameling a bracelet for a Christmas present. (2) Another outlet is designing. Shaping a lump of clay into a piece of art is Stuart Scheid. (3) Bob Slomkowski carefully paints the details in his picture. (4) Rae Trojan is soldering a ring she designed for herself. (5) With a smile of satisfaction Gina Alessandri glazes her piece. (6) Skip Degroot expertly shapes his vase on the pottery wheel. (7) Cathy Seiber patiently hooks her rug in Arts and Crafts.

Golf is a sport which takes many hours of individual practice; however it takes a real team effort to win a match. (1) Junior Jeff Tarpinian looks toward the green as he prepares to swing. (2) One skill that must be perfected in golf is being able to drive the ball out of the sand trap. This is one time when the many hours of practice pays off. Here Junior Larry Roe gets out in just one swing. (3) (l to r) Larry Roe, Tom Ross, and Jeff Tarpinian take a rest after an exhausting game of golf. (4) The 1977 Varsity Golf Team: (l to r) Drew Zuehlke, Bill Gall, Bob Rogers, Jim Cook, Larry Roe, Coach C. A. Smith, Jeff Tarpinian, Rick Meloche, Matt Buecher, Rob McDaniel, Tom Ross, and Bill Walker.

Both girls and boys cross country teams were very successful this year, both coming in fourth in the state meet. (1) Sophomore Steve Orlando pushes himself at the end of the race, recording the best time on the team this year. (2) Straining towards the finish, Junior Dennis Truby kicks it in for another good time. (3) The Girls Varsity Team: Front Row: Chris Macklin, Lisa Martin, Liz Watch, Jen Bedick, Julia Guettler, Cheryl Glover. Second Row: Coach Ewell, Mary St. Onge, Debbie Morehouse, Mary Bogush, Julie Reitz. (4) Kimball Harriers get out to a fast start at the beginning of the three mile course against Berkley. (5) Junior Tim Welch records another good time at the end of the race. (6) Coach Zulch looks over the times, hoping that Kimball will come out on top. (7) Keeping her stride, Julia Guettler approaches the finish. (8) The Boys Varsity Team: Front Row: Kevin Henahan, Dan Fournier, Bob Landry, Tim Welch, Bob Stoick, Chris Martin, Steve Orlando, Dennis Truby. Top Row: Coach Zulch, Mike Austin, Karl Hodgson, Steve Babcock, Jim Leenhouts, Kyung Shin, Tim Sterling, Phil Haubert.

This year's Varsity Football Team had a great season, tying for first in the SMA and finishing up with a seven win and one loss record. The team consisted of many fine players who pulled together when a little extra effort was needed. (1) Senior Bruce Brownie breaks another tackle for more yardage against Dondero. Bruce was named All-State by the Associated Press. (2) Dave Broughton stretches for a long pass for a touchdown. Dave was one of the team's top receivers this year, and also played defense. (3) Senior John Malone carries the ball for a touchdown. Kimball shut out Ferndale, 54-0. (4) John Bryant bootlegs around the end for yardage against Dondero.

The Girl's Varsity Volleyball team did a very good job this year, finishing first in the SMA. (1) Julie Jakabowski looks pleased after a good serve from her teammate. (2) Leslie Stange demonstrates her winning form while returning a spike. Spiking is a very important device used in playing a strategic game. (3) Celia Cratch bumps the ball, while Denise Smith watches her teammate. This technique is used to set the ball up for a spike. (4) The 1977-78 Varsity Girls' Volleyball Team: Front Row: Debbie Morehouse, Julie Blom, Celia Cratch, Leslie Stange, Julie Jakabowski. Back Row: Mary Mallos, Barb Lenihan, Gail Lind, Debbie Peters, Denise Smith, Julie Corner, Coach Lynn Stange. (5) Serving is the key to a successful game. Barb Lenihan demonstrates this concept.

The girls swim team had a very successful season, winning twelve of their fifteen meets, and placing third in the SMA.

(1) Coach Burgess congratulates Senior Pauline Heslop after her exhausting swim. This is Coach Burgess's first year as the girls swimming coach. (2) Clare Heideman takes a breath during a race. (3) Sophomore Kim Tishler signals her victory after winning the 100-yard butterfly. (4) Freshman Sue Bezy looks exhausted after her swim. Sue did very well this year and was a big help to the team. (5) The 1977 Girls Swim Team: Front Row: Kelly Seery, Clare Heideman, Patti

(1) Senior Dan Ryan prepares to takeoff from the starting block. (2) Coach Burgess coached both girls and boys varsity swimming this year. He had two successful teams, with both the girls and the boys placing second in the SMA. (3) Bob Freeman, co-captain of the boys swim team, cheers his teammates on to a victory. (4) Kelly Seery takes a breath during the 100-yard butterfly race. This race is very difficult and competitive. It requires strength, endurance and strong wings. (5) Bruce Bryant shows good form in the 100-yard backstroke. Because the swimmers can't see where they're going, competitors need a good sense of direction in this race.

Gymnastics was a new sport introduced to Kimball this year. It proved to be successful, and the team was undefeated. This sport is growing more popular everyday. Concentration, determination and poise are all important factors to be a good gymnast. (1) Karen Pugh holds a position on the balance beam. (2) Co-captain Lynn Paine does a stag handstand on the balance beam. (3) The 1978 Girls Gymnastics Team: Front Row: Dawn Mallard, Karen Pugh, Patti Hartley, Maria Devitt, Melanie Croswell. Row 2: Delaine Dixon, Jody Grabowski, Tracey George, Mitzi

Masta, Tammy Root, Sue Ditri, and Beth Fay. Row 3: Coach Clyde Ewell, Coach Julie Dalak, Jenny Blumbergs, Terry Wundrach, Karen Keeper, Joanne Baalerud, Karen Laura, Lynn Paine, and Janet Perkins. (4) Junior Janet Perkins does a handstand on the uneven bars. (5) Co-captain Beth Fay performs the splits on the balance beam. (6) Balancing on the beam takes deep concentration. Janet Perkins displays her talent during a meet. (7) Lynn Paine dismounts the balance beam with a back somersault. This is a very difficult stunt to do.

This year's Varsity Basketball team broke several records including most consecutive wins with 13 and most regular season wins with 18. They were also the only team from Royal Oak ever to be rated in the top ten in the state at the end of the regular season. (1) Senior co-captain Bruce Brownie looks for an opening to pass the ball. This was Bruce's third year on the varsity team, and he has been the leading scorer for the last two years. (2) Dave Rowland grabs a rebound from a Dondero opponent. (3) The 1977-78 Varsity Basketball Team: Front Row: Bob

(1) Starting guard Matt Tamm takes a jump shot. Matt led the team in assists this year. (2) Senior John Gervais puts it up during the Pontiac Central game. John, a valuable player to the team, started at forward, and was also co-captain. (3) Phred Tyrell takes a break during a game. (4) Dave Rowland grabs the ball and eyes two points under the basket. Dave averaged in double figures in points per game for Kimball this year. (5) Bruce Brownie looks for an opening to drive, as Phred Tyrell awaits his next move. (6) Assistant Coach Clouser explains his strategy to the team during a time out. Mr. Clouser stressed defense to his team throughout the year.

Basketball takes many hours of hard practice, getting to handle the ball and other skills into perfect timing. But more important than individual effort, it takes a real team effort. The girls put forth the effort and showed much improvement since it was formed two years ago. (1) Varsity coach Miss Stange gives instructions to her players before the game. (2) Junior Varsity Coach Mr. Turkington takes a time out to get things straight with his team. Mr. Turkington was an All-County Baseball player for Kimball in 1971. (3) Joann Ingoglia tips the ball to her teammate at the beginning of the Junior Varsity game. (4) Caroline Cole looks for an opening to pass the ball to her teammate for a better shot. Passing is an important factor in the game. (5) The 1977 Girls Varsity Basketball Team: Bottom Row: Leslie Hlifka, Fran Tamm, Mary Mallos, Leslie Stange, Karen Laura, Claudia Klemet. Top Row: Michele Bodenbach, Colleen Bauer, Mary Hopcroft, Maureen Murphy, Sandy Zuehlke, and Coach Stange. (6) Junior Claudia Klemet gets ready to put up a shot from the corner.

Both girls and boys track teams had successful seasons, the girls finishing first and the boys tying for second in the SMA. The girls team as well as the boys team are looking forward to a good season in 1978. (1) Sophomore Chris Martin shows what concentration and timing is needed while approaching the bar in the pole vault. (2) Sophomore JoAnn Ingoglia and Freshman Sue Rezendes work hard to beat their opponent in the hurdles. (3) Junior Debbie Peters gets ready to make a hand off in the 440 relay. (4) Junior Paul Willis, one of Kimball's high jumpers, clears the bar with good form and a little extra effort.

Tennis is a sport which takes extreme concentration and requires a certain skill to be a good player. Coordination and endurance are important, however, it takes real team effort to win a match. (1) Senior Tom Simons looks satisfied with his shot after slamming the ball over the net. Perfecting the slam takes a lot of hard practice, but pays off in a game. (2) Serving is a very important factor for the success of the game. Here Senior John Acciaioli aces it over the net. (3) Junior Jeff Rogell shows his good forehand form while warming up for his match. (4) The 1977 Boys Tennis Team:

(1) Junior Romeo Blanchette takes first base with ease, after receiving a walk. (2) Senior Steve Grant waits for the throw from the catcher as his opponent tries to steal third base. Steve is now playing baseball for the University of Detroit. (3) Putting power into his pitch, senior Brad Havens, one of the team's top pitchers, concentrates deeply as he prepares for this pitch. Havens was selected by the Associated Press as All-State. This is the fifth consecutive year Kimball has had an All-State player. (4) Junior Bruce Brownie picks up a ground ball and prepares to throw the runner out at first. This was his first year on the Varsity Baseball Team, and he proved to be a very valuable player. (5) 1977 Varsity Baseball Team: Front Row: Art Carlson (Manager), Brad Havens, Dave Grant, Glen Stephanoff, Ed Leet, Rob Fulmer, Steve Grant, John Schell, Guy Miller, Todd Hubbard (Manager). Second Row: Coach Frank Clouser, Romeo Blanchette, Dennis Natke, Ken Winowiecki, Tim Trinite, John Bryant, Steve Manderfield, Chris Roberts, Joe Vestrand, Bruce Brownie, and Ron Peon (Manager).

SMA — 1st Place
Final — 20-4

The Kimball varsity baseball team seems to be successful every year, and this year was no exception. They finished first in the SMA and made it to the finals in the district. (1) Senior Rob Fulmer takes a practice swing to prepare for his time at bat. (2) Coach Frank Clouser watches his team with a great amount of confidence, in his tenth year as coach of the varsity baseball team. (3) Junior Ed Leet makes the out as his opponent tries to steal a base with a slide. (4) Senior Ken Winowiecki puts forth a little extra effort as he makes it safely to first base. (5) Senior Steve Manderfield shows his attentiveness toward where the ball is being put into action.

Sometimes you capture people's real personality in a candid picture. These pictures show their real feelings towards sports. (1) "Oh my gosh! It's raining grapefruits." (2) "Are you sure you have film in your camera?" (3) "These games really thrill me . . . what a fine group of boys." (4) "Watch out everyone 'cause I'm coming through." (5) "You can't push B.B. around and get away with it. You'll pay for this after the game." (6) "Does anyone have a toothpick handy? I knew I shouldn't have had the sesame seed bun with my Big Mac!" (7) "The thing I have to go through, just because I'm a lady killer." (8) "Shucks, there goes another one out of the ball park." (9) "Butt out Gina, I spotted her first! Go find your own."

The Thespian Drama Club's spring musical, Brigadoon, was a play enjoyed by all, for the acting, music, and scenery made the production one that will always be remembered. Under the experienced direction of Miss Lorna Wildon, the play was a great success. (1) Brigadoon Villagers cheerfully listen to Fiona MacLaren (Jean Stopke) as she sings "Waitin' for My Dearie." The Brigadoon Villagers include: Standing: Mary Fisher, Ruth Anderson, Terry Guzowski, Sue Steffes, Pat Wilder, and Alissa Eiklor. Sitting: Jan Glasby and Jean Stopke. Lower Right is Ann Savaglio. (2) Meg Brockie (Jan Glasby) sings "Love of My Life" to Jeff Douglas (Jay Rees) who tries to sleep after a long day's journey to the town of Brigadoon. (3) The town elder, Mr. Lundie (John Cowan) tells the story of the secret of Brigadoon to a captivated Fiona MacLaren (Jean Stopke) and Tommy Albright, (Jeff Scott) who seems to have other things on his mind. (4) Charlie Dalrymple, (Pete Bashakes) smiles lovingly to his bride Jean MacLaren (Lisa Robinson) while they dance to the wedding song.

The Thespian's fall production, "Out of the Frying Pan," depicted a group of young actors living in New York together, looking for employment. (1) Dottie (Allison Gilbert) reveals to Norman (Ed Nahhat) that she loves him in the most peculiar way. (2) George (Rich Grudt) peeks through a hole in the floor checking on the successful theatre producer Arthur Kenny. "Gosh, I could spit right on him!" (bottom to top) Kevin Nolan, Gretchen Sievers, Dawne Johnson, and Ed Nahhat curiously look on. (3) Mr. Kenny (Chris Ewen) explains the steps in preparing his newly discovered recipe, Gumbo Zherbes, a tasty shrimp dish. He describes it as, "fried to a delicate, golden brown." (4) Kate (Gretchen Sievers) and Marge (Dawne Johnson) con Dottie's father (Tom Kammer) into letting her stay in New York by showing him Dottie's name in lights. (5) Mrs. Garnet (Janet Kurtz), the landlady, seems flustered — she isn't sure whether the group is acting or if the situation is real.

(1) The Activity and Academic groups work together to meet an important deadline. They are (l to r) (front) Amy Hawker, Denise Cahuff, Kim Arnold, (back) Teresa Hau- bert, Pat Austin, and Gail Keller. (2) The Sports Editor, Tracy Saindon works with Jeff Dawkins and Jim Russell to put out the sports section of the yearbook. (3) Writing the sports section takes a lot of knowledge and energy to get it done. Tracy Saindon was the one chosen to get the job done. (4) Being an Editor can be a very tough job. You must spend extra time after school working to get the yearbook out on time. An important, but time consuming job is proofreading the copy for the yearbook. The Editor of the Lancer is Rose Hramiec. She deserves a lot of credit for the 1978 yearbook. (5) Getting ads is an essen- tial part of financing the yearbook. The Ad-Manager, Lori Sharp, has the initiative to get the job done. Lancer pho- tographers are (l to r) Alex Nemeth, Jenny Gower, and Randy Little. They play a very important role in the mak- ing of the yearbook. (7) The Senior section is very special because it is dedicated to them. Janice Kopf and Brenda Lee type out the copy.

This year's Powderpuff game was one which was filled with excitement and team spirit. Due to the outstanding leadership of the Junior coaches, Steve Clelland, Dan Patterson, Mark Rainey and Dave Sicheneder, the Juniors racked up a 10-6 victory over the Seniors, who were coached by Matt Bauer and Craig Moorhouse. The action started in the second quarter when Lori Grant ran 62 yards for a touchdown. Gina Briggs completed a two-point conversion and the final two points were obtained from a Senior error. (1) Senior coach Matt Bauer calls out a play to his quarterback. (2) Dave Sicheneder shouts encouraging instructions to the players. (3) "Senior Machine" Debbie Peters, a running back, turns on the power as she makes her way down the field. (4) Junior quarterback Gina Briggs gets ready to throw a pass as her defensive line blocks the Seniors. (5) Denise Smith, quarterback, prepares to charge as Karen Buxton, guard, makes a move to block Junior attempts at gaining the ball. (6) Mary Fallon comes to the aid of Gina Briggs, who has just taken a tumble while holding the football.

"Friday Knight at the Movies" was the 1977 Homecoming Theme. Halftime consisted of the Marching band playing popular songs, Mr. Clarence M. Kimball's annual appearance, the Homecoming Court, floats with themes from box office hits, such as "The Bad News Bears," "Star Wars," and "Rocky" and Kimball beating Berkley, 22-6. (1) Bruce Brownie strives for yardage as he plows his way through Berkley's tough defensive line. (2) Joanie Ruffles (left) and Roberta Thibert "dance to the beat of the Band" at the Homecoming Dance. (3) The Homecom-

Homecoming is a very special time of year for past and present Kimball students. (1) The A Capella Choir leads the Kimball fans through the Fight Song and other school spirit songs. (2) The enthusiasm of Homecoming is shown by the Environmental Club through their excellent banner. They really get the point across to the Berkley Bears. (3) Clarence M. Kimball makes a special appearance for the Homecoming festivities at Kimball. He is escorted by principal, Mr. Jack Stephan. (4) "Announcing the Nineteen Seventy-seven Homecoming King and Queen, Dennis Natke and Kim Johnson!" The excitement of winning really shows up through their smiles.

The Class of 1978 proudly presents the dedication of this yearbook to a man who more than deserves it; Mr. Isadore Rosen. Mr. Rosen graduated from Wayne State University with a major in English and a minor in Journalism. Before going on to teaching, he worked on several newspapers including the Fourth Armored Division newspaper. During the time he spent in the army, he took some journalism classes in Barritz, France. When he returned home he became the managing and feature editor of the Wayne State paper. His teaching career began in September of 1948 at Dondero, and then he moved to Kimball at its opening in February of 1957. During this time, he has taught every course in the English department, except speech. Mr. Rosen has also been the only yearbook and newspaper advisor here at Kimball. Besides being a stimulating teacher, Mr. Rosen is also known as a competent and creative professional photographer. He takes portraits and pictures at weddings and Bar Mitzvahs. Rosey is a very well liked man throughout the halls at K.H.S., not only by his fellow teachers, but, very importantly, by the students.

Kimball's exchange students, Barbara Wild from Germany, and David Munoz from Chile, have found their life styles have changed, while still holding on to their cultural backgrounds. (1) In her Chemistry class, Barbara Wild mixes solutions for observation of their chemical reactions. In challenging classes, Barbara takes the initiative, and completes the task with a victory. (2) David Munoz finds the American music easy to dance to. He found the Snowball Dance a good chance to socialize with other students. (3) As first chair violinist, Barbara Wild expresses her musical talent with her solo in the Symphony Orchestra. In Germany, the bands and orchestras are very important, therefore very advanced. Barbara likes to tell how they differ and how they are alike. (4) In the busy hallways of Kimball, Barbara and David find a moment to talk about the day's happenings. (5) David takes the stand during a Roundtable meeting to voice his opinion on a school issue. The exchange students participate in many activities during the year and are given the opportunity to share their values with others.

(1) Tracy Saindon, JoAnn Baccus, and Beth Carlson took quite awhile to figure out what they could be on Senior Dress Up Day. They came up with a bright idea and disguised themselves as the Keystone Cops. (2) Little Bo Peep (Ann Veldey) has lost her sheep, but as a replacement has captured a bug (Jill Broadridge). (3) Tim Kowalski has Laura Berglund apply make-up during lunch. (4) Kim Cook and Cindy Cleghorn surround, #1 (Rick Redmond) as he tests his luck with the dice. (5) Great Wizard (Vince McCormick) whizzes through his Physics. (6) Sherri Cochran disguised as a Senior clown, has had enough fun and games for one day and decides it's time to get to work.

It appears that the seniors in school have an easy life — a few classes, then off they go to work. But we know different. All of the work and time spent in school was worth it. Being a senior isn't all fun and games as you can clearly see by these action shots of hard working seniors. They are in their advanced or college prep courses. (1) Sue Williams (right) and Dawn Belding work together on an advanced chemistry experiment. Sue takes the temperature change down on paper as Dawn heats an element. (2) Sue Martin and Pat Thompson show class room friendship as they talk over one another's notes for paper that was due in Advanced Comp. (3) Terry Guzowski takes notes for her group, while Rick Dausty, Richard Grudt, and Hohn Cowan observe the Physics project closely. (4) Who me? Says Diane Olkowski. I've seemed to have lost my place; could someone else read? (5) Dave Debold and Diana Gilbert show their senior math class how it's done, as they explain the tough problem that faces them on the front board. The question is, however, will they or will they not get it.

(1) Matt Osen thinks it's a lot better to have his picture taken than to do any work in class. (2) It looks like Kevin Whiteside is really taking a lot of time to do a class assignment. (3) It seems to be that Joe Vestrand is showing his group a few facts from the book in Personnel Foods Class. (4) Could it be or couldn't it be interesting? "That is the question." (5) What in the world could these four seniors be standing on their desks for? It looks as if they are ready to bombard someone with shoes and paper wads. Tom Gallop, Denise Smith, Bob Neary, and Randi Boley may be demonstrating something in Business Law.

What a year: pot lucks, Powder puff games, Bahamas, four outstanding Senior officers, and a great Senior advisor. (1) President Bill Peterson has put a great deal of his time into making sure that the class of '78 really is great. (2) Treasurer Carol Welch has put her mathematical mind to work, as she manages the class money with extreme carefulness. (3) Secretary Elaine Schnaidt has shown much enthusiasm in keeping the class plans accurate and up to date at all times. (4) Vice President Cindi Green has spent many hours right along side her fellow officers making sure it is a wonderful senior year for all. (5) Senior Advisor, Kay Cornell, smiles with approval at a fine senior class.

The Senior Officers of the Class of 78 have planned things for the senior class to get involved in. One of the things that took place this November was the Senior Pot Luck. Many people showed up to support this activity. A lot of the people that came were ready to sit down and eat and later to chat. (1) "Hurry, take my picture so I can get back to my delicious plate of food, or else it's going to get cold," says Bob Kaltz. (2) Walking on crutches means fast service. Bill Peterson sure looks like he has it easy. Debbie Filippis fills his plate with spaghetti and of course we all know Bill is going to eat more than that. (3) Barb Hengstebeck, Virginia Wright and Carol Welch really stuffed themselves with all that high calorie food that the senior class brought for the pot luck. (4) "Maybe as soon as I'm done with this I'll go and get myself another helping, I sure can't let all of this terrific food go to waste," says Linda Jannuzzi. (5) Mary Sage is sure glad she came to this pot luck because it gave her the chance to meet new people in her class.

To be chosen as a Knotable Knight is the greatest honor a student can receive. Throughout their four years, these students strive to better the school and community by participating in sports and activities. These fine young men and women were chosen by their coach or teacher on the basis of their dedication, leadership qualities, attitude and outstanding ability. With the background these students have already acquired, they will hopefully branch out and become the leaders of tomorrow. (1) DAVE DEBOLD (left) has been active in debate for his four years at KHS. He showed excellent performance early by placing first in the state in his sophomore year, and then again in his senior year. He participated in the nationals for the third time. Dave is most deserving of the honor of Knotable Knight for debate. Much hard work and practice earned ROBERT LaBELLE the title of Knotable Knight for forensics. Bob is currently second in the state for extemporaneous speaking and state champion in district competition for the National Forensics League.

(1) An outstanding musician and great conversationalist, JANE BACHLEDA is the choice for Knotable Knight in Orchestra. Jane has been a member of the Symphony Orchestra and Baroque Strings for four years. She has been to the Festival two years, was an active member of the Royal Oak Musicales for three years, where she is currently serving as president. (2) CHERIE KOKOCHAK plays the trumpet and has been named Knotable Knight for Band. She has bettered the music department by serving on the Stage, Pep and Marching band for three years. Cherie also took part in Symphony band. Her dedication and outstanding talent have earned her this recognition. (3) Knotable Knight LYNN PAINE received admiration from her gymnastic coach and has been described as "a super leader who is always lending a hand to aid others." Lynn helped start the team last year and as captain led the team to an unbeaten season this year. A "classy performer," Lynn has the ability to become a champion gymnast.

(1) The art department is fortunate to have a dependable girl like LORI JACOB working for it. For three years, Lori has been doing more than expected and with the finest quality. An easy girl to work with and always striving to the utmost, Lori is the 1978 Knotable Knight for art. (2) PAULINE HESLOP has been involved in girls' swimming for her four years at KHS. As a co-captain in her senior year, Pauline encouraged her fellow teammates to do their best. She holds the school and SMA record in the 400 relay. To better his speed and style, NORM LARSON swam during the summer to build his endurance. He attended the morning and after school practices and all has paid off as he is one of the team's top freestylers. Norm is a member of this year's fastest 400 free relay and has lettered for three years. (3) The two Knotable Knights for tennis are BETSY ALLEN and JEFF ROGELL. Betsy is an energetic player who is always helping others better their game. She has lettered for three years and plays first varsity Doubles. Playing singles, Jeff Rogell has lettered for four years. Jeff has improved over the years and hopes for a winning season to finish up his last year at KHS. (4) Starting at center for two years, DENNIS NATKE is a co-captain of the 1977 football team. One of the finest offensive blockers KHS has ever had, he was All-League this year. Dennis gets along real well with his teammates and coach and that has earned him the honor of Knotable Knight. (5) A versatile dancer with much grace and poise, DEBBIE FILIPIS is the one choice for Dance Club's Knotable Knight. Debbie has been a member of Orchesis for three years and has choreographed six numbers for the annual spring show. As president, Debbie runs the meetings and sees that all plans are carried out. She strived to better the Dance Club through her hard work, dedication and talent.

(1) What would the Synchronized Swim Club do without JOANN BACCUS? As this year's secretary and treasurer, JoAnn has the job of keeping attendance and managing the Naiades' finances. To get new ideas for the Spring show, she went to a synchronized camp this summer. (2) These two fine, young men have received immense praise from their basketball coach. JOHN GERVAIS (right) has been a starter on the varsity for two years and is one of the captains this year. He is described as, "one of the most versatile players and finest shooters we've ever had at Kimball." MATT TAMM holds the season and career record for most assists. He is also one of the captains and has been a starter for two years. Matt is the best defensive ballplayer on the team. These two players have made their mark and deserve the honor of Knotable Knight. (3) As president of Thespians, GRETCHEN SIEVERS presided over the monthly meetings. She has directed two workshops and has had one lead and three minor parts in the two plays held annually. Gretchen has worked for four years to improve the drama club and, through her drive, has succeeded. (4) Baseball is an active sport, calling for quick reflexes and exact movement. BRUCE BROWNIE is an extreme competitor and a team leader. He's a tough second baseman with a lot of hustle. Bruce has lettered in four varsity sports and has been a real asset to the sports department. (5) A Capella's Knotable Knight is shared by two talented girls. DIANA GILBERT (left) has spent three years in the choir and Madrigals, was secretary in her junior year and president in her senior year. She worked as a student assistant for Mr. Lancaster and helped direct the choir during class. MELANIE SEGAL is a two year member of choir and Madrigals and is serving as vice-president. She works after school doing odd jobs for the music department.

(1) ROBIN FISHER has served as a student assistant for the Business Education Department for two years. She has participated in the Business and Office Education Club of America and competed in regional and state contests. Robin plans to attend Oakland Community College and major in business administration. (2) As a sophomore, LISA JONES found an interest in journalism, was a member of the Lancer in her junior year and heads the Herald in her senior year. Some of Lisa's duties as editor are assigning and proofreading the stories, pasting up the dummy and getting it to the printer on time. Without her organization, the Herald wouldn't have been such a success. Being an editor takes an energetic and patient person. ROSE HRAMIEC headed the whole production of the yearbook and spent countless hours after school finishing the sections. Because of Rose's new ideas, the Lancer is proud to present her for Knotable Knight. (3) BOB PELC has one of the winningest records on this year's wrestling team. He has been on the varsity for two years and his skill has made the difference in many dual matches. Bob has the leadership qualities and is evident in the practices and meets. (4) Roundtable's Knotable Knight DAN RYAN works closely with the students and administration to plan activities that will help unite the school. One of his projects for two years has been to co-chair the Beautification auction. Dan's organization as president resulted in a very successful year. (5) STEVE BABCOCK (left) and DAVE BROUGHTON, co-captains of the 1978 track team, are the best two 440 runners. As stated by their coach, "These two boys are excellent to work with." Both hope to finish out their senior year with the best possible record. DEBBIE PETERS is a double Knotable Knight winner. As co-captain of the volleyball team, she is a two-year all-SMA medal player and is a prime contender for all-county and all-state. In track, Debbie holds the school, SMA and state record in high and long jump, and hurdles, school and SMA record in 440 relay and school record in 880 relay. She is captain of the team and is placed as one of the top three female athletes in the state. As stated by her track coach, "Debbie is the finest female athlete ever to compete for Kimball and can really go far in college."

The Senior trip to the Bahamas was an opportunity for 100 students to take a break during their full school schedules, to experience many interesting and unique activities. These activities ranged from disco dancing to swimming, motorcycling to shopping at the International Bazaar and sight seeing to lounging at the poolside. All together, they added up to an exciting trip. (1) Even being grounded in the Bahamas isn't all that bad, for (l to r) Mark Wade, Blake Cawley, and Alex Nemeth amuse themselves outside their room. (2) After a long ride through Freeport on motor bikes, Donna Siatczynski and Joey Vestrand rest by the pool. (3) (l to r) Linda Colasanti, Holly Smart, and Michelle Yamarino relax at the ocean to catch some sun. (4) "I've got the beer, who's got the Bahama Mamas?" asks Kurt Wood, carrying his supply of spirits. (5) (l to r) Marilyn Rutten, Tracy Saindon, and Kim McDonald join glasses to say "Cheers." (6) Linda Finerty enjoys trying on hats at the International Bazaar. (7) Who says you can't dance to bush music? Not Tina VonEberstein and Don Hopkins, as they do it to it.

MOTTO — Dream the impossible, because the impossible dream can come true.

SONG — Looks Like We Made It

ANIMAL — Koala Bear

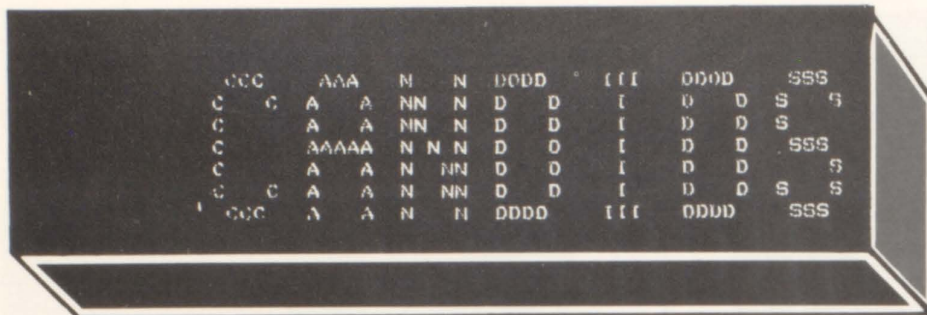

COLORS — Black and Blue

The Seniors of the Class of 1978 are engaged in a few activities at which they are spotted doing their own thing. (1) Bob Slomkowski doesn't know what's going on around him; the only thing that he is interested in is the master piece painting that sits before him. (2) Martians and clowns: what exactly is this school coming to? Janice Kopf and Regina Thurau show their enthusiasm as they come to school disguised for Senior Dress Up Day. (3) Pam Wright and Matt Tamm eat and drink merrily at the second annual snowball dance. (4) Dan Ryan impresses the class with a great impersonation of Charlie Chaplin as he waddles into the room.

*Your friends say they'll keep in touch,
Your teachers say come back and see them,*

*Maybe someday
But right now,*

*but you know they won't,
and you know you won't.*

*it won't matter,
it hurts a little.*

Rosemary Potts

This past year one of the best loved teachers, Mrs. Rosemary Potts, passed away. Since September, 1968, Mrs. Potts graced the halls of Kimball. Teaching all areas of English, she touched many students with her carefree and loving ways. Mrs. Potts sponsored the Chess Club, Student Exchange Club, and also chaperoned many Senior trips. For these, and so many other contributions she made, we will remember her always.

Keith Lancaster Retires

"To Kimball High, our song we sing . . .," those famed lyrics of the Alma Mater were written by Mr. Keith Lancaster, former vocal director. Mr. Lancaster had been teaching at Kimball since its opening in 1957. He plans to spend his retirement in Florida. In addition to being the Music Department head, Mr. Lancaster also held position as the vocal coordinator for the City of Royal Oak. The music Mr. Lancaster taught to his students will echo throughout the halls of Kimball forever. ". . . our grateful hearts to Alma Maters praise."

School Board

(1) The "behind the scene" job of the Royal Oak School Board effects the everyday life of the student. The school board members are: (Front row, l to r) Marie M. Kantarian, vice-president, J. Robert Sterling, president, Janice L. Keller, secretary. (Second row) Kathleen B. Penner, trustee, Stanley E. Staffeld, treasurer, Robert E. Meschke, trustee, and Kent D. Schultz, trustee. (2) (left) In 1973, Dr. Otto Hufziger came to fill the position as Superintendent of the Royal Oak School System. He has made many new, progressive, and effective programs for our schools. Dr. Hufziger has done an excellent job, and we hope he will continue to, for many years to come.

Who says teachers have it hard?

Typical Seniors!

Come on, look alive!

Hi, mom.

(l to r) Chris Ewen, Pam Sellers, Holly Broesamle, Helen Porco, Dave Race, Vicki Schaffner, Amy Schell, Ruth Hamlin, Kitty Harlan, Rob McDaniels, Scott Yoshonis. Front: Mrs. Bennett.

Honest, I didn't do it.

Homework, homework, when will I ever find the time?

His feet are killing me.

Reach back
for the joy and the sorrow,
Put them away in your mind;
For memories are time that you borrow to spend when you get to tomorrow.

When it's hard to recall the memories of your school days, use this book to reminisce and wonder if any good things ever last. Throughout the school months, the staff has spent long hours after school helping make this the best possible yearbook. I thank them and the Bill William's photographers, picture co-ordinator, Jan Smith and our Taylor Publishing representative, Mr. Sam Slis who all helped immensely in time of need. But mostly, Mr. "Rosie" Rosen, who gave of himself and his time in order to help guide me in the production of this book. Best of luck to the class of '78.
